Remarks

By the above amendment, applicant has amended the specifications to correct the sections identified as "not applicable". Applicant has deleted above sections.

Also, applicant has rewritten all claims as suggested by Examiner to define the invention more particularly and distinctly so as to overcome the technical rejections of 35 USC 112. The suggested claims are broader and clearer than the ones first submitted. I appreciate the examiner's efforts in this regard.

Conclusion

For all the reasons given above, applicant respectfully submits that the errors in the specifications are corrected, and that the claims comply with section 112. Accordingly, applicant submits that this application is now in full condition for allowance which action applicant respectfully solicits.

Very respectfully,

Gary L. Flinn
